Version of 28.09.2006

Bank guarantee

Address (guarantee – favoured person / company)

Concerns: Order Nr. of Back-letting payment

Our customer, the company(guarantee client) have informed us that the back-letting amount withheld by you, concerning the order quoted above, is paid to them on receipt of a bank guarantee to your favour.

Under these prerequisites we (bank, address) hereby take over the irrevocable guarantee by committing ourselves, on receipt of your written requirement, without examination of the underlying legal grounds and through renouncement on any objection, to a payment of EURO....

(in words Euro)

into an account of MONDI Neusiedler GmbH / Ybbstaler Zellstoff GmbH, whose number must be communicated by you.

This guarantee enters into force as soon as the back-letting amount has arrived irrevocably and for the free order in any account of the guarantee client.

Our guarantee expires automatically

- as soon as we have received this document
- at the latest, however, on at 12 p.m., even if this document is not returned, unless you contacted us (address, contact person, fax number) by written post or courier service. A demand by means of fax up to the expiration date mentioned above is regarded as sufficient for period keeping if the original of the demand arrives at our company within seven days after receipt of the fax (although only after the expiration date mentioned above)

After expiration of the validity period this guarantee must be returned as run out.

Legal rights concerning this guarantee can only be ceded or pawned in favour of third with our explicit agreement.
